

Bill Corbett

We used to use Paratherm in all of our oil units, but it had a tendency to sludge up after a short number of hours. Duratherm does not sludge up at all. We first switched to Duratherm because of cost, not realizing that it was going to be a better product. We are very happy with the product and the pricing.